MATT CAMPBELL HEAD COACH / MT. UNION (2002) 7TH SEASON AT IOWA STATE (42-34)

Since taking over as head coach prior to the 2016 season, Matt Campbell has changed the culture of the Iowa State football program, building a blueprint for success unprecedented in Ames.

Campbell, who owns the best winning percentage in school history (55.3 pct.), initiated his rebuilding plan and laid the foundation by imploring his team to "Trust The Process." His team listened, sparking Iowa State to its most fruitful periods in the program's history.

National rankings and bowl berths have become the norm thanks to Campbell's leadership. The three-time Big 12 Coach of the Year (2017, 2018, 2020) has led the Cyclones to a school-record five-straight bowl games, yearly appearances in the national rankings and five consecutive winning seasons.

In 2020, Campbell led the Cyclones to a first-place finish in the final Big 12 regular-season standings, a spot in the Big 12 Championship game and a New Year's Six bowl game, all program firsts.

The 2020 Cyclone squad was one of the best in school history. With a 34-17 win over Oregon in the PlayStation Fiesta Bowl, the Cyclones claimed their first-ever victory in a New Year's Six bowl. ISU broke the school record for conference wins (8) and tied the school mark for overall victories (9).

Campbell's recent five-year run at ISU has caught the nation's attention with its drastic improvement, placing Iowa State football into the national rankings and the college football spotlight. Iowa State has appeared in the AP Top 25 poll in each of the last five seasons.

Campbell, who has fostered a player-driven atmosphere with his contagious personality, owns 37 percent of Iowa State's all-time victories over ranked teams. He's defeated 10 opponents ranked in the nation's Top 25 since 2017, knocking off at least one ranked opponent in each of the last five seasons.

This past year, Campbell notched his fourth victory over a Top 10 opponent (Oklahoma State). ISU owned just eight victories all-time over Top 10 teams prior to his arrival.

Records have been shattered in the Campbell-era on offense and defense, including total offense (444.3 in 2019) and sacks (33 in 2018, 2021). His teams play with precision on both sides of the ball, boasting a defense ranked among the top three in the Big 12 in scoring defense in each of the last five seasons and three of the top four scoring offenses in school history. Campbell's 2021 squad yielded 310.5 yards per game, the lowest from a Cyclone team since 1984 and ninth-best nationally.

Campbell is the first and only coach in Iowa State history to defeat every team in the league at least once at home and on the road during his Cyclone tenure and produced five of Iowa State's six winning seasons in Big 12 Conference history (1996-present).

The Cyclones have played as a ranked team a school-record 25 times since 2017 and Campbell has 31 victories vs. Big 12 competition, the most by a head coach vs. league teams in school history. Campbell owns 41.3 percent of the school's all-time wins vs. Big 12 teams (1996-2021).

Since 2017, Iowa State has recorded 29 Big 12 wins, the league's second-best total during that span.

2021

Iowa State qualified for a school-record fifth-straight bowl (Cheez-It Bowl) and registered a program-best fifth-straight winning season, tying for fourth in the Big 12 at 7-6 overall and 5-4 in league play.

A victory at Kansas State, ISU's first in Manhattan since 2004, and a triumph over No. 8 Oklahoma State, Campbell's 10th victory vs. a Top 25 team in his Cyclone tenure, gave Campbell victories over every league team on the road and at home in his Cyclone career. He is the only coach in school history to accomplish that feat.

The Cyclone defense was outstanding. ISU only allowed two teams to reach 350 yards of total offense, ranking ninth nationally in total defense at 310.5. ISU also tied a school record with 33 sacks, as first-team All-American Will McDonald IV led the league in sacks for the second-straight year with a school-record 11.5.

Behind consensus All-American Breece Hall and four-time All-Big 12 QB Brock Purdy, who graduated with 32 school records, the Cyclones produced the fourth-best scoring average (31.3) in school history. ISU was second nationally in red zone offense (95.9%), converting on 47-of-49 trips.

Hall was second nationally in scoring (138) and broke the all-time NCAA FBS record by rushing for a touchdown in 24 consecutive games.

Cyclone tight end Charlie Kolar was the recipient of the prestigious William V. Campbell Trophy, which is awarded annually to the nation's best scholar-athlete football player and considered the Academic Heisman.

2020

The 2020 campaign will go down as one of the greatest in the history of Iowa State football. The Cyclones surged as the frontrunner for the Big 12 title with a 37-30 win over No. 18 Oklahoma in October, their first win over the Sooners in Ames in 60 years, and never let up.

By season's end, Iowa State was in sole possession of first place in the final regular-season conference standings (8-1) for the first time in school history, earning a rematch against Oklahoma in its first-ever Big 12 Championship game.

The historic regular season earned the Cyclones their first-ever New Year's Six bowl berth, defeating No. 25 Oregon, 34-17, in the PlayStation Fiesta Bowl.

The victory over the Ducks, Campbell's second bowl win at ISU, gave the Cyclones their ninth victory on the year, tying the school record for wins in a season (1906, 2000).

Campbell was honored as the Big 12 Coach of the Year for the third time in four years and was a finalist for national coach of the year by all four of the major coaching awards: Eddie Robinson, Bobby Dodd, Bear Bryant and George Munger.

The national media paid attention during the season. Iowa State cracked the Top 10 in the AP poll for the first time since 2002 and achieved its highest ranking in school history at No. 6 in the fourth College Football Playoff rankings.

Iowa State, which played as a ranked team a school-record 10 times, ended the season ranked in the final AP poll (#9) for just the third time ever (1976, 2000).

Campbell continued his excellence against ranked opponents, knocking off a trio of rated teams (Oklahoma, Texas, Oregon) for only the second time in school history. It marked the first time an Iowa State team defeated both Oklahoma and Texas in the same season.

Iowa State had incredible balance on offense and defense, ranking in the top three in the Big 12 in both scoring offense (32.9, 3rd) and scoring defense (21.4, 2nd). The offense scored 30+ points in seven of nine Big 12 games and set a school mark with 31 rushing touchdowns. The defense was second in the league and 21st nationally in total defense (340.4) and first in the Big 12 and eighth nationally in rushing defense (103.1).

Iowa State players were rewarded for the breakout season with a school-record and Big 12-best nine players earning All-Big 12 First-Team recognition.

The Cyclones also had a school-record four All-Americans in RB Breece Hall, TE Charlie Kolar, DE JaQuan Bailey and LB Mike Rose. Hall, who was the nation's leading rusher (1,572) and ranked second nationally in rushing touchdowns (21), was the first Cyclone unanimous All-American in school history, earning first-team All-America accolades from the AP, FWAA, AFCA, Walter Camp and Sporting News.

2019

Iowa State's 2019 offense was the most prolific in the history of the program, helping the Cyclones finish tied for third in the Big 12 with a 7-6 overall record and a 5-4 league mark.

School records fell in the following offensive categories: total offense (5,776), passing offense (4,047), yards per play (6.45) and points scored (418). Ten times during the season the Cyclones generated over 400 yards of total offense and eight times Iowa State had more total yards than its opponent.

A victory over No. 22 Texas (23-21) on a last-second, walk-off field goal was a signature win during the season, as the Cyclones appeared in the College Football Playoff rankings for the third-straight season.

The offense was led by All-Big 12 QB Purdy, who broke virtually every school passing record, including passing yards

Kolar was his favorite target, earning second-team All-America honors by the FWAA and CoSIDA Academic All-America accolades.

2018

The 2018 Iowa State football team once again captured the imagination of college football fans by proving the 2017 campaign wasn't a fluke.

Despite a 1-3 beginning to the season, Campbell kept the Cyclones on the right path by making an amazing turnaround with a five-game winning streak, tying the best single-season conference victory string in school history en route earning Big 12 Co-Coach of the Year accolades.

The Cyclones had six conference victories, second-best in school history, and also proved to be a tough out at home, ending the season on a six-game win streak at MidAmerican Energy Field at Jack Trice Stadium, tying the school record (six) for most season victories in the stadium.

Iowa State wrapped up its second-straight bowl berth with a spot in the Valero Alamo Bowl, ending the regular season with an 8-4 mark and tying for third in the Big 12 standings (6-3).

HEAD COACH MATT CAMPBELL

The Cyclones appeared in all six College Football Playoff rankings behind a stingy defense and Purdy as a true freshman signal-caller.

Iowa State led the Big 12 in scoring defense (22.9) and rushing defense (115.0), holding all but two teams to below their season scoring average.

Purdy took over signal-calling duties in the season's fifth game, promptly leading the Cyclones to five-straight victories and igniting the offense. Purdy had help from All-Americans David Montgomery (RB) and Hakeem Butler (WR), who both tallied over 1,000 yards from scrimmage, the first time in school history the Cyclones had a 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver in the same season.

Butler shattered the school record for receiving yards in a season with 1,318 yards and was named a second-team All-American by The Athletic.

2017

Campbell's 2017 squad will be remembered for breaking through.

Picked to finish ninth in the Big 12 Conference, the Cyclones capped off their outstanding 2017 campaign with a victory in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl over Memphis, just the fourth bowl win in the program's history. He was named Big 12 Coach of the Year for his efforts.

Iowa State surged into AP Top 25 poll for the first time since 2005 thanks to a perfect 4-0 mark in the month of October where it defeated two Top 5 teams in Oklahoma and TCU.

Prior to the season, Iowa State was 1-56-2 all-time vs. teams ranked in the Top 5 of the AP poll, tripling its all-time career total.

The victory over Oklahoma (38-31) in Norman was Iowa State's first-ever win over a Top-5 opponent on the road and one of the school's signature triumphs. Iowa State followed up the OU win with a 14-7 victory over No. 4 TCU three weeks later, helping the Cyclones garner their first-ever appearance in the College Football Playoff rankings.

Iowa State finished the 2017 season with an 8-5 overall record and an upper-half finish in the Big 12 at 5-4.

Three of ISU's wins were against ranked opponents (Oklahoma, TCU, Memphis) and five were on the road, breaking or equaling school marks in both categories.

Campbell coupled an opportunistic offense with a stingy defense for the success in 2017. ISU scored over 40 points five times during the season, tying the school record for 40-point games in a season.

Defensively, the Cyclones ranked in the Top 30 nationally in scoring defense (26th, 20.9) and turnover margin (16th, +10). The Cyclones broke school marks in fewest turnovers and fewest fumbles lost in a season, going nearly the entire year before losing their first fumble, tying the NCAA FBS all-time record along the way.

2016

Campbell's work with the Cyclones in his inaugural season proved he was the right man for the job.

Inheriting a program with depleted numbers on both sides of the ball, the Cyclones displayed gradual improvement throughout the season, as ISU compiled a 3-9 overall mark and a 2-7 record in Big 12 play.

Iowa State's offense was balanced and efficient, boasting a 1,000-yard receiver in All-Big 12 performer Allen Lazard and a rushing attack which featured three players with 500+ yards on the ground, a first in school history.

OUTSTANDING PLAYERS AND HISTORIC VICTORIES

In his six years at Iowa State, Campbell has mentored 11 players who have earned All-America honors, including five first-teamers in Joel Lanning, Breece Hall, Mike Rose, JaQuan Bailey and Will McDonald IV.

Hall is the only unanimous All-American in school history and joins Troy Davis (1995, 1996) as the only two-time consensus All-Americans in Cyclone history. Tight end Charlie Kolar is the only three-time All-American in the history of Iowa State football.

Four Cyclones were drafted in 2022, including Hall as a second round pick by the New York Jets, the highest Iowa State draft pick since 2012. Kolar and Enyi Uwazurike were picked in the fourth round and Purdy in the seventh round. In total, seven of Campbell's players have been drafted. Allen Lazard, who was an undrafted free agent in 2018, has made his mark as a wide receiver with the Green Bay Packers.

Campbell's teams have annually produced historic victories. Campbell owns 40 percent (four) of Iowa State's 10 all-time wins over ranked opponents on the road and 10 of Iowa State's 27 all-time wins over ranked opponents.

In his tenure with the Cyclones, Campbell has four wins over teams ranked in the AP Top 10. Iowa State was 8-98-2 vs. Top 10 opponents prior to his arrival.

Jack Trice Stadium has emerged as one of the toughest places to play thanks to Campbell. Since 2018, ISU is 21-5 in home games, tying a school record for home victories in a season (6) in 2018. Iowa State registered two of the school's four undefeated seasons at home vs. conference teams in back-to-back years (2020, 2021). The Cyclones will enter the 2022 campaign with a school-record 11-game home field winning streak vs. league foes, the best active streak in the league.

He has also energized a fanbase. Four of the top five season home attendance marks have occurred in the Campbell-era, including a school-record 60,704 average in 2021, a season featuring four sellouts and a school-record 49,470 season tickets sold.

Campbell's belief system is grounded in building relationships. He has often been referred to as a players' coach. Building relationships is at the foundation of his recruiting prowess. His first six Iowa State recruiting classes rank among the best in school history. His 2022 recruiting class was the best in the program history, earning Top 25 rankings by both 247Sports and Rivals.

PRIOR TO IOWA STATE

Campbell compiled a 35-15 record and led the Rockets to three nine-win seasons in four-plus seasons as the head coach at Toledo. He coached UT in three bowls and his 2015 Rocket team played in the Boca Raton Bowl after being hired at Iowa State.

PERSONAL

Campbell and his wife (Erica) have four young children: Katie, Izzy, Rudy and Rocco. Campbell earned a bachelor's degree in history from Mount Union in 2002.

In 2022, Campbell was inducted into the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-America Hall of Fame.

In 2021, Campbell agreed to a three-year extension to his contract through 2028.
